PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Turning Point offers Stabilization and Transitional Living Residences (STLR), residential treatment and support recovery services for men and women with substance use/misuse issues. We provide a safe, supportive, structured and supervised environment to facilitate physical, mental, emotional and spiritual recovery. Our sites are licensed under the BC Community Care and Assisted Living Act and Regulations.

PROGRAM PHILOSOPHY AND TREATMENT APPROACH

Turning Point believes that all individuals are, and can learn to be, ultimately responsible for their own lives and their own decisions. To that end, the program facilitates the bio-psycho-social and spiritual growth of clients so they can reintegrate into our communities as healthy, contributing citizens.

Turning Point employs the following psychosocial interventions and theories to encourage and support change and recovery of our clients:

- Stages of Change - Transtheoretical Model
- Motivational Interviewing
- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Behavior Modification Therapy
- Pharmacologic Supports
- Trauma-Based Interventions and Supports
- Relapse Prevention
- Empowerment Model
